

Founder and Social Reformer

Acharya Satyanarayana Patodiya

M.Com. (Silver Medalist), C.A.I.I.B., A.I.B.(London),
F.C.I.B.(London), A.C.B.I.(England), F.C.I.(London),
A.I.M.M., A.M.I.M.A., A.I.I.B.(Mumbai)

Retired Principal, Central Staff Training College of UCO Bank
Director - Centre for Public Awareness & Information

Acharya Satyanarayana Patodiya is a Spiritual Motivational Speaker having professional experience in development. He is a great orator. To his advantage is a First class academic record with Silver Medal from Vikram University, Ujjain. Smt. Indira Gandhi, the then Prime Minister of India was the Chief Guest of the convocation in Feb. 1970. Acharya Satyanarayana interacted with her on the shortcomings of the present system of modern education and necessary reforms to be made for improvement by the government.

Acharya Satyanarayana has command on many subjects. His motivational seminars have been applauded widely. His lectures are aimed at increasing self-productivity while achieving individual and organizational goals effectively. His workshops are full of life changing principles and innovative ideas touch people's heart while giving them tips to achieve extraordinary results.

His skilful oratory challenges one to THINK BEYOND THE ORDINARY TO REACH THE EXTRAORDINARY. His lectures highlight the synergistic relationship between age-old science and modern living. He has conducted various seminars and delivered keynote address for various Institutions, M.N.Cs and Social Organizations. He has been delivering motivational lecture since 1974 in various Banks and Institutions. His motivational and spiritual addresses are being telecasted by many TV channels.

He is teaching Management of Anger for getting positive response than to Control or suppress Anger, as being taught to us from the early childhood.

Since 1977, he has been writing and publishing books. He is author of 10 books on Banking and one book for medical professionals. His books are best sellers since 1978, and 3 books are sold more than one lakh each.

His academic record is wonderful, as he had topped in Banking in 1973, from The Institute of Bankers, London. His professional excellence was recognised by The Institute of Bankers, London by electing him as the FELLOW of the Institute of Bankers, London.

In the age of 75, he is learning Kathak dance and also passed the Prathama second year in First Division, from Bhatkhande Sangeet Vidyapeeth, Lucknow, in 2022.